 Students do business in a business-like way. Their textbooks are thoroughly modern, revised right up-to-date. They deposit money in the College Bank and pay by check. They discuss notes and keep an accurate record of all business. They use loose-leaf systems. Their penmanship is kept up to the mark. Their work in calculation must be both speed and correct. It will pay you to take such a course. See us before Monday, December 16th, when the winter term begins.

AROUND THE CITY

Mr. James Chalmers, Vancouver, was a visitor in the capital yesterday.
 L. H. Shaw, M.P., lecturer, returned from the Alberta tour.
 A "squadron of the Nineteenth Alberta Dragoons will hold their regular meeting, during the "Winter" evening in the separate school hall.
 The Amateurs Operatic Society will meet on Wednesday evening at eight o'clock, in the McKay Avenue school. There are a few innovations that the committee would like to see filed at this rehearsal.
 The Young People's League of Grace Methodist church had a merry skating party at the Central rink last night. The members afterwards adjourned to the church for lunch.
 The dedicatory services in connection with the McDonald Memorial Baptist church were continued last night, when the young people of the church held an informal reception.
 Refreshments were served, and there was a large attendance.

A large old country mail arrived at the post office last night, containing letters only. The parcel mail will reach tomorrow on Friday. The last country mail before Christmas, containing both letters and parcels, is expected to arrive next morning.
 Mrs. Grace Park, the colored woman who was taken to the Misericordia hospital after yesterday morning's attack, showed symptoms of poisoning, was reported to be very much better last night.

An entertainment under the auspices of the Overman Club was held at the Johnson theatre last night, when special times were shown before the audience. The entertainment was a most amusing program, and Col.
 Curatelli and Major Griesbach gave special addresses. In the afternoon there was a free entertainment for all the children of the city.

Friday evening is the date set for the second annual dance held under the auspices of the Ladies Order of Moose. An orchestra will be in attendance and refreshments will be served. Dancing will commence at 8:30 p.m. sharp. Tickets can be had at the following places: Moose Hall, 191 First Avenue; Boston Cafe, Jasper Avenue east; Corona Hotel, Jasper Avenue west; Owl Hotel, First Ave. east; Kline's Jewellery store, Jasper Avenue east; also from any of the committees.
 Alexander Houston has been appointed clerk in the Edmonton office for the Dominion department of public works. He will have supervision of all federal public buildings in the district.
 R. J. Mansson, who formerly held the position, has resigned.

Rice Sheppard who lives on the Rice road on the south side, reported to the police yesterday that when a woman was coming to his house on Sunday night, she was suddenly seized by a man, who carried her away from the bushes and buried a sack of pieces of timber at the machine.
 She then disappeared into the bushes.

CHILDREN'S AID MEETS.

CLOSE SEASON TILL DEC. 1912.
 Here, Lawson, chief game warden, writes the Bulletin, with reference to the close season for beaver, as follows:
 "I wish to advise you that many persons throughout the province are under the impression that the close season for beaver which has existed for some time past will terminate on 21st day of the present month. This is incorrect. I take this opportunity of advising you of the fact in order that you may advise your readers accordingly. You will find by referring to Sec. 13 of Chapter 13 of the Provincial Statutes of 1910, that the close season for beaver was extended from the 21st day of December 1911, until the 21st day of December 1912. Consequently there will be no open season for beaver before the 21st day of December, 1912.

FUNERAL OF TRAVELER'S NOVELS.
 The funeral of Traveller's Novels, the publisher of which had suddenly died Friday last, was yesterday attended by a large number of persons.
 A service, conducted by Cannon, was first held at All Saints Church, and was attended by about 25 fellow-workers and several friends of the deceased. Upon the casket was placed a large pillow of flowers, and the staff of the publisher as a token of their respect and sympathy.
 The deceased's collection, Messrs.
 Hager, Miller, Ford, Pielke, Duke and Burnett, acted as pall-bearers. After the service the body was taken to the funeral home, where it was placed in the coffin and the coffin was carried to the funeral home.
 The staff desires to express their sincere sympathy with the relatives of the deceased.

ON MURDER CHARGE

Adam Fisher Arrested by Mounted Police Near Prince Albert in Accused of Having Shot Pontrebec Instructor at White Forks.

Special to the Bulletin.
 Prince Albert, Dec. 15.—It is expected that Adam Fisher, the presumed assassin of the late Pontrebec instructor, will stand trial on the charge of shooting William Pontrebec, the late instructor at the military penitentiary at White Forks, on Tuesday, Dec. 18. The verdict brought in by the coroner's jury investigating the murder was that Pontrebec died as a result of a bullet from a rifle which was exhibited and by the person firing the same, namely, Adam Fisher, on Tuesday, Dec. 2.

Pontrebec was one of a party of penitentiary officers up at White Forks hunting moose. The two who afterwards disappeared in the bush, opened fire on Fisher, and he fired back.
 The wounded man was rushed to the hospital at Prince Albert in an ambulance. The temperature being 15 degrees, he was in a critical condition.
 He died of the wound. He had the wound and shot in the hospital here.
 Fisher admitted at the inquest that after he had shot at the man, he saw he had shot at the man. He says he heard shots which scared him and he ran away. He was arrested by the Mounted Police at Prince Albert and says he is a camp cook by trade.

MEETS DISASTER

Flying Out of Los Angeles Afloat, And His Passengers Are Believed To Have Been Drowned.
 Los Angeles, Dec. 15.—Horse-fellows on the Pacific coast, who were attempting a hydro-aeroplane flight from Los Angeles to San Francisco, were forced to land today, together with Chester Lawrence, a San Francisco newspaper man, who was accompanying him on the trip. A portion of the hydro-aeroplane, "the unit" was picked up late today in the Pacific ocean by a motor boat off the beach and the bodies of Santa Monica by a party of fishermen.

Thirty-hour continuous search for the Lawrence was without success, except that Glenn H. Martin, a Los Angeles newspaper man, who was accompanying him on the trip, was picked up late today in the Pacific ocean by a motor boat off
 Monica by a party of fishermen.

TRAMWAY AND LABOR COMMISSION.
 Very little of public interest transacted at the meeting of the Trades and Labor Council last night, practically the whole of the evening being taken up by the discussion of matters of minor importance. A resolution was passed by the committee, that they are arranging with Lawyer Markle to draft a bill to be introduced in the legislature for their approval.

First Action Is to Suing For Wages Which Hired Man Says Is Result

 While She Was Working on His Case.

By Bulletin Special Wire.
 Montreal, Dec. 15.—Today the preliminary round in the breach of promise suit which arose at Montreal, was argued here and it lasted until after 11 o'clock tonight. It was for wages and for the several months' work by Paul Kelly against Mrs. Marie Greenman, a wealthy widow for whom he worked. When the case had been before the court for over five hours, money were divided, and J. V. Mil-ward, J. P., gave a decision half way between the amount claimed and offered.
 Kelly told that he had made an agreement to work for his future wife at $4 a month while she was acting on his knee.
 There were many sensational features including a denial by Mrs. Greenman that she had ever had her photograph taken with Kelly, and the fact that Kelly had been promoted to the position of J. P. by O. H.
 Kelly, lawyer for Kelly, after the case was over Kelly said that he was not going to sue for breach of promise but that he would sue about to be started against her.

GREAT NORTHERN WILL
ELECTRIFY 530 MILES

Line Between New Rockford, N.D., and Lewiston, Me., Now Under Construction, to Be Electrified at Cost of More Than Ten Millions.
 Minneapolis, Minn., Dec. 15.—It is learned here that the Great Northern railway will electrify its route between New Rockford, N. D., and Lewiston, Me., which is now under construction.
 The line will be 530 miles long and is through one of the most strategic sections in the northwest.
 It is believed that the completion of a large carload of engines but caused the company to build the line between New Rockford, N. D., and Lewiston, Me., which is now under construction. The line, when completed, will cost more than $10,000,000.

MISS GOULD TO MARRY

FINLAY J. SHEPPARD
 Lehigh, N. Y., Dec. 15.—The announcement of the engagement of Miss Helen Gould of New York to Finlay J. Sheppard, a prominent railroad man of St. Louis, was made this afternoon at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould here.
 Mr. Sheppard has long been commonly identified with Western railroads. He is now assistant to the president of the Missouri Pacific, with headquarters in St. Louis. He is 45 years old.
 Upon the death of her father, J.
 Gould, in 1912, Miss Gould, then 24 years old, inherited a fortune of about $10,000,000. It has been estimated that her inheritance will be worth $10,000,000. At the same time received half of her time to benefactress which brought here into world prominence.

Twenty-five Women Leave New York to Present Petition to Governor Sulzer at Monticello.
 New York, Dec. 15.—First addressed to the suffragettes, who are all right for our business smallness, will be cured as but vices for all.

Thus sang twenty-five suffragettes today as they started on their 140 mile walk to Albany to deliver to Governor Sulzer on his inauguration day a message for the cause of woman suffrage.
 Each woman has a knapsack in-terlarded with the words "Votes for women" and containing suffragette literature which will be scattered through every town and village on the way.

Walking leisurely, the pilgrims expected to reach Yonkers the first stop in their 14-day itinerary shortly before noon. There, in Squire's square, Mrs.
 Jessie Hardy Statton, of Chicago, will speak for the cause.

The route led them to Irvington, where, tonight a suffragette meeting will be held under the auspices of local organizers. It has been predicted that a hundred women at least will undertake the journey, and on the road many decided to stay at home.
